Organisational Overview

In Fremantle, every tree-lined street and green space tells a story, and our Parks & Landscape crew help write it. Our Parks & Landscape crew are the ones behind the green spaces, tree-lined streets, and playgrounds families grow up in. Whether it's laying turf, maintaining heritage streetscapes, or caring for native bushland, your work directly shapes how people experience their neighbourhood. This is hands-on, outdoor work with a clear purpose, keeping Freo vibrant, clean and full of life. You'll be part of a solid, supportive team, working with the tools and equipment you need to make an impact on our local environment.

The City of Fremantle is currently seeking to appoint a suitably experienced, motivated and enthusiastic Urban Forest Officer to join our Urban Forest Service Team. You will be a passionate team player that has a genuine interest in caring for and growing the City's Trees.

Key Responsibilities

- Assist in the effective implementation of street and reserve tree planting and maintenance programs.
- Provide a high standard of courteous and efficient service to internal and external customers and stakeholders.
- Respond promptly to customer requests and in accordance with the City's customer service charter.
- Accurately collect and update tree management data utilising mobile field technology.
- Under general direction, assist in the management of the City's trees including formative pruning, fertilising and other general care

To be considered for this position, you will need

- Qualifications or demonstrated experience in arboriculture, horticulture or other relevant discipline.
- Good communication and customer service skills.
- Basic skills in computer programs including Microsoft Office, mobile field technology and to manage task specific information and technology systems.
- White card
- A current WA 'C' class driver's licence.

The City of Fremantle promotes a workplace that actively seeks to include, welcome and value unique contributions of all people. The City encourages people of all ages, genders, and abilities, Aboriginal Australians and people from culturally diverse backgrounds to apply for this job.
