- Strong planning and organisational skills to coordinate crews and deliver outcomes.
- Experience operating a range of civil plant and equipment.
- Excellent communication skills and a focus on customer service.
- A genuine commitment to workplace safety.
- The ability to confidently use technology and maintain accurate records.

What you'll get

- $1,420 per week + super, based on a 38-hour week
- Permanent full-time position
- 9-day fortnight (every second Friday off)
- The opportunity to lead a skilled and dedicated crew.
- Ongoing development and training opportunities.
- The satisfaction of delivering important infrastructure outcomes for the community.
