Organisational Overview

The City of Fremantle is a vibrant and forward-thinking organisation where we believe in empowering our people to think outside the square and explore ideas that make a real difference in our community.

We care about the wellbeing of every team member, and are proud of our respectful, collaborative and fun work environment. Fremantle is a place your authentic self will always be welcome.

The City of Fremantle provides an eclectic mix of services, facilities and events to local residents, businesses and visitors. We are committed to employing caring, competent, adaptable and responsive, professional individuals who are excited about making Fremantle a welcoming city for all. The City is committed to serving our community and making a positive impact on our environment. We aim to do this through our culture, whereby we take ownership, bring creativity and innovative thinking, collaborate to create better outcomes, and celebrate our collective success. We are committed to reducing paper and going digital to reduce our environmental impact and improve access and efficiency.

The City of Fremantle is currently seeking to appoint a Senior Landscape Architect to join our Parks and Landscape team. You will be involved in delivering an exciting range of projects including masterplans, play and youth precinct upgrades, sporting and public realm projects, along with our greening program. You'll lead a small team working in a collaborative studio environment along with our Project Management and Place and Projects Teams.

Key Responsibilities

- Successfully plan, design, procure, and deliver landscape architecture projects from concept through to handover and asset integration, ensuring alignment with scope, quality standards, and community needs.
- Engage and collaborate effectively with internal and external stakeholders, community groups, and the public to support transparent communication, manage expectations of landscape design and construction projects.
- Lead and support Landscape Architecture staff to encourage and facilitate high performance, professional development, and consistent application of industry and organisational standards and Australian Institute of Landscape Architecture (AILA).

To be considered for this position, you will need

- A tertiary qualification in Landscape Architecture (BLArch or MLArch).
- Ability to obtain Institute of Landscape Architects Registration (AILA).
- Significant experience managing landscape architecture and public realm projects from concept through design, procurement, construction and handover.
- Demonstrated ability to lead and support a small professional team.
- Strong project management skills, including managing budgets, programs, resources, risk and competing priorities.
- Demonstrated knowledge of contemporary landscape architecture practice, Australian Standards, public landscape maintenance and safety requirements.
- Highly developed communication, stakeholder engagement, report writing and graphic presentation skills.
- Advanced skills in Microsoft Office, AutoCAD and Adobe Creative Suite.
- The ability to resolve complex design and project delivery issues in a practical and creative manner.

The City of Fremantle promotes a workplace that actively seeks to include, welcome and value unique contributions of all people. The City encourages people of all ages, genders, and abilities, Aboriginal Australians and people from culturally diverse backgrounds to apply for this job.
